

Campaign Questionnaire

Dear player:

We've been playing our campaign for almost a year now and I'd like to take this opportunity discuss what you think of it so far in terms of theme, pacing, larger plotlines and individual character plots. Your answers will help me plan ahead and modify the game experience as to make sure the campaign continues to be fun for everyone.

Remember that the game is a group endeavor and I will always strive to present different plotlines and stories for different characters, thus the spotlight will not always be on your character. I hope I can hit a stride and provide something for everybody every session. Also the campaign has changed in tone and group composition as characters have died and have been replaced by others. The campaign we began playing is very different from the one we are playing now!

Be constructive and as specific as possible in your answers. Last but not least, remember that not every plot thread that I present you MUST be followed. Part of what I'm trying to do is provide options and based on what your characters decide to do allow the plot to continue and evolve organically...

Here is what I want to know... (Feel free to elaborate!)

Tell me three things you like about the campaign:

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

Tell me three things you don't like about the campaign:

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

PLOTS

There are some larger campaign plots which impact everybody, or almost everybody. I would like to know how you fell about them: Interested Uninterested, or Indifferent.
